Elise Selah is an actor and multi-nominated director that has recently moved to AZ from NY. She received her MFA in acting at the University of Florida. And has been working in NY until her recent move to Phoenix. She is thrilled to be a part of the team bringing Marianne to life after a long Covid break from performance. She wants to thank her husband for his endless support along with God for his presented opportunities. You can find Elise on Instagram @eliseselah.

Jillian Walker (she/her): Jillian is super excited to be joining BlackBox Foundation as Roland! She holds a BA in Theatre (Acting) from Arizona State University (2019), and is relieved to be creating again after a long two years offstage. Favorite past roles include #8 (The Wolves, Stray Cat Theatre), Emme (Good Friday, ASU), and Quincy / Bart 2 (Mr. Burns: A Post-Electric Play, MCC). She'd especially like to thank her partner, mom, and hoard of house plants for keeping her sane during the historic events through which we are continuously living.
